

Compelling speaker shines light into darkness of addiction Bradley V. DeHaven

Speaker, author, activist, and father of an Oxycontin addict in remission

Bradley V. DeHaven has interviewed hundreds of families afflicted by prescription drug abuse and addiction, listened, and provided no-nonsense words of consolation and advice based on his experience living with a drug addicted child. He has written two well-received books on the subject.

Story Ideas:

5 things parents can do to discourage or prevent their child from abusing prescription drugs.

7 surprising signs that your adolescent may be abusing prescription drugs.

The compelling case for at-home drug testing. Why smart and loving parents test their kids for drugs.

Parents of prescription drug-addicted teenagers need to have certain information to survive emotionally and even financially.

These may be the most important things you as a parent of a drug addict can do to increase your child's chance of survival.

How parents can avoid the most common mistakes when faced with a prescription drug-addicted child.

A view from Ground Zero: What can be done about this epidemic that is fast becoming the leading cause of death for children and young adults?

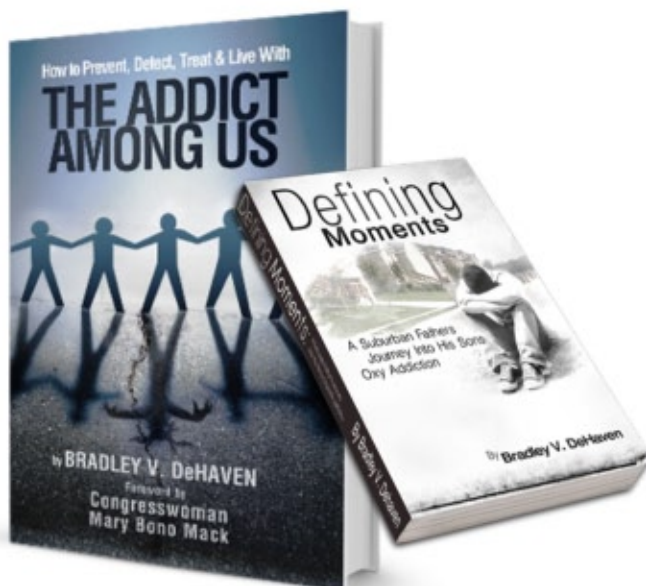

Contributing to the delinquency of minors: How Mom, Dad, and Grandma may be helping their kids get hooked on heroin!

Do you have heroin in your medicine cabinet?

Would you go undercover to save your addicted child from prison? This guest did.

Media experience:

Print,
Television,
Film, and Radio, including:
News 10-
ABC
News,
FOX 40 News,
Kitty O'Neal-News Talk KFBK;
Insight Capital Public Radio,
And an appearance in the award winning film, Behind the Orange Curtain.

Contact Information
www.rxdrugaddict.com
brad@rxdrugaddict.com
916-224-6981 (CA)